Design a user-centred bin

User-centered designs focus on removing the barriers and introducing useful features to add value for the user.
Your user is a young person aged 11-14.

List barriers to using a recycling bin.

List features you could add that would make them want to use it more.

Draw and label your design

Look at your design - what three questions would you like to go and ask your user?

- ....

  ....

- ....

  ....

- ....

  ....